Our custom photo books can start with as few as eight pages including cover. Pages can be added in multiples of 4 pages -8, 12, 16 & up to 96. You can also print on the inside front and back cover.
SHOWCASING PARTICIPANTS

FAMILY, FRIENDS AND ATTENDEES WILL USE THE PROGRAMS TO LEARN MORE ABOUT THE PAGEANT AND CONTESTANTS.

An introduction, printed schedule, message from the director, and judges biography are important. The reigning queen, past royalty and appearances of the previous winner should also be included.

Gwen Nanna used the left page to showcase the winners from the previous year and give a short biography about them. This helps generate excitement for the contestants that are participating in this year's competition. She also used the same magenta color throughout the program to give everything a unified look.

Donella’s advice for a printing project is “keep it simple”! She hosts many pageants throughout the year and using a similar format means that she doesn’t have to start the design from scratch every time. This means she has more time to focus on the pageant!
